

Payment Terms - Commission orders will only be accepted if accompanied by a 30% non-returnable deposit. The balance is due upon delivery of the completed portrait. Prints, gift vouchers, greetings cards and non-commissioned artwork must be paid for in full at the time of ordering.

Fees - Fees are as per current published price list. For non-standard commissions, I will supply the client with a quote which will be adhered to for that particular commission.

Adjustments - Customer satisfaction is very important to me and reasonable adjustments to finished artwork will be carried out free of charge. Where unforeseen adjustments are requested, or any that deviate from the agreed commission, there will be a time-based additional charge.

Copyright - Reproduction and publishing rights for all artwork remain with me and images must not be copied, reproduced or published in any form without my express written permission. The same applies for all photographs taken by me. The client agrees that commissioned images and photographs may be used by me for promotional purposes, prints for sale, or any other purpose.

Third party source material - The onus is upon the client to obtain permission from the copyright holder of third party source material (e.g. course photographer) and provide proof of this at the time of ordering.

Privacy Policy - Details supplied by clients will not be passed to any third party.

Gift Vouchers - Vouchers expire 12 months from validation date (date of issue) and are not redeemable for cash, but may be used for a portrait of higher value on payment of the difference.
